THE TIMES.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 16, 1907.

FARMVILLE.

So far the New Year with us has'nt differed essentially from its immediate predecessor. Night and day, work and rest, coming and going, buying and selling, marrying and dying, sickness and health, "good bye" and "how do you do," preaching and teaching, memory and hope just as in th' days of yore and no doubt will so continue until the "last squall of recorded time."

There is no 'let up' in the business warfare with us. Our merchants are up and at it early and late and with the regularity of clock work.

If the work of macadamizing our county roads goes on as it has done for some time past, we will soon be in a position to bid defiance to the mud of winter, and when this is done the country will be the place for man to live, thou ch he has been usually, recklessly rushing to the cities for years gone by. It is high time the unhealthy congestion should cease. Good roads, daily mails and telephone conveniences will insure it.

It is'nt often we have a vacant pulpit in town, but that of the Episcopal church is now vacant and offers an attractive work field to some preacher of the gospel. The church building is a most attractive one, the members, though few in numbers are cultivated, conscientious people and earnest workers while the Normal t achers and students add a most interesting and inspiring feature to the congregation.

Third St., which leads from our Main St. to the N. & W. depot, is still jumping, while High Street is being made one of the most attractive in the state. The pavement on Main St. has been doing service for many years and while a little rough is substantial and still doing good service.

Capt. Baxter Davis, the veteran ticket agent of the N. & W. looks lonesome since a lull follows the Christmas rush-sale of tickets and "Charley" Chappel, the toy man, wears something of a sad countenance now that Christmas shopping is over, though he has'n been resting on his laurels. There is but one rest day of the week for him and that is Sunday, when the stores all close and the wheels of industry all stop. I don't know what would be the result to men and mules if their day of rest did'nt return with unerring regularity. The hymn is right which says of it, "Day of all th' week the best."

Our warehousemen wear cheerful countenances now that the sales are on again and while it is agreed that the crop is an unusually poor one prices continue good. Bringing the weed to market for the next three months will be no picnic, but the men who grow tobacco are not given to yielding in presence of difficulties. The pity is that they are not better paid for their arduous work, and yet in their houses and at their daily tasks they enjoy do doubt a sweet content to which the dwellers in our hustling, busy centres are strangers. May they ever have the best this life can offer and after it the "rest that remaineth for the people of God." That's my New Year wish for the farmers of Southside Virginia, the noblest workers of them all.

Mr. W. H. Ewing, our worthy and efficient county treasurer, who was seriously ill at one time, is now enjoying his usual health, much to the delight of his many friends. No people were ever served by an abler or truer official. By the way he has a rare collection of jokes and tells them admirably.

Our Circuit court has been having more to do with criminal cases of late than for many years past. Not much in them to the lawyers, however, and that means loathe of interest in the trials. Juliius often speak for the fun of it but lawyers never—rarely ever.

This is a good season for discussing good road improvements. Object lessons are abundant and impressive. Alas, when the mud gets interest in the subject goes too. Why not sell out all we own in the Phillipines and invest the proceeds on our public highways? Ordinary business prudence would demand such policy in the conduct of private affairs. Private sovereigns, however, so often lose their sanity when they get to be public servants.

Can you tell me Mr. Editor, why every landowner with a spring pond has'nt also a fish pond? There is no mystery about the art of raising fish, and are there any better fish than those caught from our streams and ponds?

The subject of our orchards is another sad one. There are but few table luxuries that cannot be grown in Southside Virginia. Lets grow them and enjoy them and let the outside world know about them.

Tax payers of our town are kicking prodigiously because of the fact that while the dispensary is a "none such" as a money maker, and taxes are higher this year than they were last year. And this though the hope had been fondly indulged that the dispensary profits would do away with taxes altogether. "The best laid schemes of mice and men often gang a gley."

The members of the Normal faculty, who are housekeepers, are most delightful entertainers, and I hope the spirit, once so abroad in all Virginia, will at least take possession of Farmville again. Our people are most intense workers and deserve more "rest offs." If we knew each other better outside of business circle we might love each other better. The business grind is merciless while the home gatherings are generous and kindly. Breaking bread with fellow man has the tendency to break down financial barriers and to produce sympathetic heart throbs.

Some of us are hoping that the new year gift to Farmville will be a modern hotel, not on Main St. but on some hill top over looking the business portion of our town.

Our local Republican politicians are often registered in Washington now a days looking after the post office plum. It is well worth the plucking.

It looks as though the law would get its hand on all the murderers of that good man, Grubbs, who was so foully murdered in his store house at Tuggles, last June. It is ever proper to use the expression "hang a too good" for such fiends. The court sentenced Jesse Ruffin and Massie Hill to be hung on Feb 15th for the crime.

A negro in the West was recently hanged three years before reprieve arrived

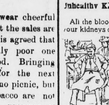
Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.



The kidneys are your two purifiers, they filter out the waste matter in the blood.

If your kidneys are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Poisonous echesandhes then come from excessive uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidneys.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle by mail Home of Swamp-Root. free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

This thing of pooling tobacco, if it pans out as is expected, is bound to be the cause of the weed bringing better prices. At Dillwyn last week some leaf was pooled at $11, $9.50 a hundred advanced on the same, and I am reliably informed that the same grade would only sell for $8.00 a hundred on the market. Draw your own conclusions brother farmers. Mr. John T. Olliver has bought some 30,000 or more pounds in the last few weeks at prices that seem to satisfy those who sold, and they are some of our best planters. I see no reason why buyers do not come to Dillwyn and keep up the market that was started there, where is ample warehouse room and a spacious factory. Planters can afford to take $1 in the hundred less at Dillwyn rather than haul over the rough roads to Farmville and merchants can sell goods at less expense at Dillwyn and consequently can offer at low prices.

A white preacher, who had spare time on Sunday evenings, gave it to preach to the colored people of his parish and he was emphasizing the sin of violating the 8th command ment, and it happened that some wearing had been going on in the neighborhood and after the service was over some of the colored deacons told the minister that they appreciated his kindness in preaching for them, but he need'nt come any more. The minister a little puzzled inquired the cause of their dissatisfaction, when the colored brother said, "well all dat bout stealing ain't no fitten chat for Sunday." How about that chat in last week's paper about mulattos and what
